

What we are doing to develop SEND support at Little Plumstead Primary School in 2023 - 24

Our key SEND themes: inclusion, equity & opportunity

Expanding the range of support provided for pupils' each day:

- Sensory Circuits
- Precision teaching
- Lego Therapy
- Wellbeing opportunities
- Mindfulness
- Restorative conversations & practices
- One to one and group sessions
- THRIVE

Establishing strong relationships and wider community links:

- SENDCo Network
- Willow Tree Network
- Cluster SENDCo Network
- Governor engagement
- Parent/carer workshop opportunities
- Pupil Voice to inform practice

Introducing new systems to identify and monitor the needs of all vulnerable learners:

- SEN support file
- Individual SEN files
- APDR cycles
- Streamlined identification of need approach
- Termly SENCO surgery

Making sure pupils are actively involved in planning and reviewing SEN support:

- Establishing purposeful APDR cycles
- All about Me profiles
- 7Cs documentation – strengths focus
- SEND themed assemblies
- Pupil Voice meetings
- SEN audit

Ensuring efficient use of our resources:

- Staff knowledge and skills audit
- CPD
- Resources audit
- Investment in new SEND specific resources

Developing a good understanding of pupils' barriers to learning and knowing what we can do to overcome and remove those barriers:

- Staff training – INDES, PEASS, Zones
- Working with external specialists
- Purposeful SEND Support Plans
- Personalised learning
- Monitoring and assessment
- SEN display board

Making sure parents/carers are involved in the planning and review of their children's support:

- SEN Information Report
- Parent views form
- SEND review meetings
- Coffee mornings
- Sharing information via posters, information leaflets and newsletters
