

HISTORY

Study the lives of significant individuals in the past

Year 1
Spring Term

Mary was a pioneering palaeontologist

She studied fossils to understand the past

Mary Anning

Mary was born in 1799.
Most people were quite poor.

Mary was a fossil collector who lived in the coastal town of Lyme Regis.

1799
1800

1837

1847

Mary's father showed her how to get fossils out of rocks and cliffs.

When Mary's father died she sold fossils to visitors.

She discovered the fossil of an ichthyosaur.

Mary discovered the fossil of a plesiosaur.

Henry was Mary's friend and an artist.
Mary was poor. He did drawings of her fossils and gave her money.

Mary died in 1847.

Mary helped us to know more about the prehistoric past.

This is her legacy.

Significant people make big differences in their lifetime

Victoria became queen in 1837.

David is a scientist who makes films about natural places and wildlife.

David Attenborough

David was born in 1926.

Simple cars were being driven.

Elizabeth II became queen in 1952.

David filmed 'Life on Earth' with rare mountain gorillas.

He was knighted by Queen Elizabeth II.
He is called Sir David Attenborough.

2000
2001

David made a film about the oceans and seas called Blue Planet in 2001.
He filmed Blue Planet II in 2017.

2017
2020

He has shown us the wonders of the world.
He warns us about the dangers of pollution.

This is his legacy.

